Dinner for Miss Grunsfeld.

Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Spits entertained at dinner in honor of Miss Florence Grunsfeld. At the close of the elaborate repast, the jolly party adjourned to Mr. Tugan's dance at the Casino and spent the evening dancing and visiting.

Those who were present are Miss Florence Grunsfeld, Misses Beatrice and Ruth Ifield, Miss Gladys Mandell, Miss Aline Stern, Miss Regine Rosenwald, and Messrs. Ernest Landolf, Arthur Praeger, William McClurkin, Frank Hubbard, William Rosenwald, and Herman Schweizer.

Dahlia Luncheon.

Mrs. Non Ifield was hostess Thursday at a most delightful luncheon. Huge clusters of lovely pink and white dahlias were the effective decorations.

The guests were Miss Virginia Cart, Misses Beatrice and Ruth Ifield, Miss Elsie Kempenich, Miss Florence Grunsfeld, Miss Aline Stern, Miss Annette Weinman, Misses Helen and Myrl Hope, Miss Gladys Mandell, and Miss Regine Rosenwald.

Miss Hanson's Birthday Party.

Last Saturday Florence Hanson celebrated her eighth birthday by giving a jolly party.

Games of all kinds were played and particularly delicious refreshments were served.

The rooms were artistically and tastefully decorated with red and white sweet peas, nasturtiums, and poppies.

Miss Hanson was assisted by Mrs. Bert Baker and Mrs. A. C. Haquar. The guests were Lalla Boyd, Vician Fletcher, Lydia Fried, Ada and Naomi Nichol, Marjorie and Helen Johnson, Margaret Snively, James and Arthur Baker, Robert Haquar, Anna Laughlin, Helen, and Clara Stephens, Dorothy Warren, Jane Beaman, Marjorie Sparo, Fay Boyd, Read Hanson, Frank Storts, Yuel Bertram, Virginia Eicher.

Social Events for Bar Association.

The New Mexico Bar association meets in Albuquerque next Tuesday and Wednesday and a number of very pleasant social affairs have been planned in honor of the visiting members.

Tuesday evening there is to be an open meeting at which a particularly interesting lecture will be given, after which there will be a reception and dance at the Commercial club. Three years ago a similar affair was given which proved to be a great success and it is hoped this year to have the occasion still more delightful. The young people of the city are invited to attend.

Wednesday evening the Bar association banquet takes place at the Alvarado and brings to a close the meeting for this year.

A Chilly Tale of Iceland.

The Good Cheer club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. G. Campbell, 210 West Iron avenue and Professor Bonnett has charge of the enjoyed an unusual entertainment in the form of a reading of "A Chilly Tale of Iceland," which made a hit in the midsummer afternoon. Readings from the National Rebekah followed.

The rooms were prettily decorated with sweet peas and following the program a delicious two course luncheon was served. The guests were Mesdames Reibl, Vann, Doolittle, Collier, Isherwood, Campbell, Whitesides, Burstein, Brixner, Casey, Rogers and Putnam.

A One Hundred Percent Perfect Baby.

The babies' welfare committee of New York, which is the association of all public and private agencies in the city that are at work to reduce infant mortality, held a baby contest recently. The prize baby was selected according to the regulation "score card" of the American Medical association, which allows sixty points on the child's physical examination, and forty to its history and mother's care.

Johanna Wiggett was declared one hundred per cent perfect and was awarded the blue ribbon "Grand Prize of Greater New York," and a cash prize of fifty dollars.

Here are her measurements:

Weight, 33 pounds, 14 ounces.

Height, 25½ inches.

Circumference of head, 19½ inches.

Circumference of chest, 20 inches.

Circumference of abdomen, 20 inches.

Depth of chest, 4½ inches.

Length of arm, 14½ inches.

Length of leg, 16½ inches.

Age, 28 months.

All a Mistake Promises a Hit.

Rehearsals of the play "All a Mistake," which is to be presented shortly under the auspices of the Rector's aid and the Guild of St. John's church, have disclosed the fact that the cast is exceptionally strong and well-balanced. Those who have seen the amateur players preparing say that the comedy will be one of the biggest hits ever produced in this city. The situations are rich in humor, and the members of the cast are taking full advantage of the comedy openings. Each player seems to have been cast for the part he or she is peculiarly fitted to interpret.

Bonnett-Wells Wedding.

A wedding which was quite a surprise to their many friends occurred Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the residence of Reverend S. E. Allison, when Miss Mamie Dudley Wells and Professor Clarence E. Bonnett were united in marriage.

Misses Elizabeth and Lorena Wells, sisters of the bride, were the only witnesses to the ceremony.

That evening there was an elaborate wedding supper at the Trimble ranch in Tijeras canyon, where Professor and Mrs. Bonnett are spending their honeymoon.

Mrs. Bonnett is a sister of Mr. Trimble Wells. She graduated from the normal department at the University of New Mexico in 1913 and taught last year in one of the country schools.

Professor Bonnett has charge of the department of economics and sociology at the university. He returned about a week ago from Chicago, where he has been during the summer doing special work at the University of Chicago.

Domenici-Giomi Wedding.

Monday morning at 8 o'clock at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Miss Emma Giomi and Mr. Antonino Domenici were united in marriage. Reverend A. M. Mandarini, S. J., reading the impressive nuptial mass.

The bride looked charming in a beautiful gown of crepe meteor, trimmed with real lace. Her veil was fastened to her hair with orange blossoms and she carried a huge bunch of American Beauty roses. Mrs. Charles Giomi, the bride's sister-in-law, was the matron-of-honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Mary Corazza, Miss Vera Corraza, Miss Ida Tosi, and Miss Iola Bachichi. Mr. Domenici was attended by his brother, Mr. Carmelo Domenici. Lida Mattoon was the ring bearer and Reina Diodati, Elizabeth Zeigler, Lena Diodati, and Benni Mattoon were flower girls.

An elaborate wedding breakfast was served at the Giomi home after the ceremony and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon a formal dinner was given at Colombo hall. Covers were laid for fifty.

In the evening at Colombo hall, there was a reception and dance in honor of the bride and groom. Refreshments were served throughout the evening and Di Mauro's orchestra furnished particularly delightful music.

Mr. and Mrs. Domenici left at midnight for California. They will be at home to their friends about the first of October at 418 North Second street.

Miercoles Club.

The Miercoles met very informally this week with Mrs. R. Pomeranz and enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon at the close of which a delicious lunch was served.

Those who were there were Mrs. T. E. Youl, Mrs. R. Mathews, Mrs. E. Schultz, Mrs. J. G. Gentry, and Miss Candace Philbrick.
